Medical.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the World for all

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Weakness of the Back, or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys, or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—SECRET and solitary practices, more fatal to their victims, than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes, or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN

especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS,

IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF POWER,

Immediately Cured, and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences.—Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny, that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits, than by the prudent? Beside being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.

Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!

Persons Ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders, and their Deadly Poisons, should apply immediately.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emicated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN

who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed to despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to that undiscovered country, "from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of Ignorant or Unskillful PRETENDERS, who by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health, to sign over his galling disappointment.

To such, therefore, Dr. JOHNSTON pledges himself to preserve the most Inviolable Secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most Speedy, Certain and Effectual Remedy in the World for all diseases of Imprudence.

☞No letters received unless postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send a portion of advertisement describing symptoms.

There are so many Paltry, Designing and Worthless Imposters advertising themselves as Physicians, trifling with and ruining the health of all who unfortunately fall into their power, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, that his Credentials or Diplomas always hang in his office.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this establishment, year after year, and the numerous Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed.—But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

The Star and Sentinel.

LOVE UP A TREE.

There was a seat in the apple tree,
  A most delightful and cozy nook;
And one afternoon about half-past three,
  Kitty sat there reading a book.
Her fair head bare, with no hat to mar,
  And her dress just showed one dainty boot;
And he saw her as he smoked his cigar,
  And he came and stood at the ladder's foot.

Kitty half blushed, then smiled and said,
  "Won't you come up and sit here now?"
And Kitty's brother, a boy to dread,
  Saw and determined to raise a row;
So he crept softly under the tree,
  Listening to all they had to say,
Did the impish brother; and sly as he could be,
  Seized the ladder and bore it away.

Then they saw him; and she with a frown,
  Said. "What will that awful boy do next?"
And she called him the greatest scamp in town.
  Yet I dont believe she was very much vexed,
For her lips half smiled, though her eyes cried.
  As she saw the position of matters now.
And he came over and sat by her side,
  Leaving his place on the opposite bough.

What could they do? They were captives there.
  Held as if by an iron band:
Kitty tossed back her golden hair,
  And reflectively leaned her chin on her hand,
"If," said she, "we for help should call,
  They'd laugh to see us in such a plight;
So we'd best stay here till the shadows fall,
  Or till some one or other comes in sight."

And some one did come. It was Kitty's papa,
  Who past the tree his footsteps traced,
And saw through the leaves a lighted cigar,
  And a masculine arm round a feminine waist.
Kitty looked down and blushed at one,
  And then looked up and blushed at the other:
Said her father, "These are nice goings on!"
  Said she, "It was the fault of my brother."

What was the end? I'll tell you what.
  Some months after, 'mid silks and lace
And ribbon and ruches, some ladies sat,
  Who were discussing the time and place
As to when—so ran their debate—
  And where a certain wedding should be:
And that impish brother was heard to state,
  "It had better come off in the apple tree."

"THE ONE-ARMED BLESSING."

BY FRANCIS LEE.

The old, the lame, the blind, the foolish and the sick; God's children: here they are, four hundred black-skinned people on the fairest heighth of all that overlook the fair city of Washington.

This is the boiling down of forty hospitals that was scattered over the Southern States; the last leaf of the table that at one time fed thousand of freemen. It is down the hill a little from Howard University, in the middle of a wide lawn covered with grass and beds of flowers and large trees.

And a few days ago we had the rare privilege of going with General Howard through the wards and around among the poor old bodies lounging upon benches in the sunshine.

"I thought you'd done forgot us," said one wrinkled crone with a white turban wound about her head.

"Oh, no I didn't forget you," he replied, "but they have been investigating me at the Capital because I built a little hospital for you, and I've been very busy."

"I knows you done got the better of 'em," returned the old woman triumphantly. "I'se Gen. Howard's man!" she added with a chuckle "and you are sure you won't forget these yere uns?"

"I won't forget you. But if I should, there is One that never will. Do you know who it is?"

"Yes sar, up thar," she replied, turning her eyes upward.

"How are you, to-day?" asked the General, passing up to another old creature, who sat on a chair beside her bed.

"I'se dreffул poorly; I'se had a real bad night," said she, brightning into a smile as she took the offered left hand.

"When you can't sleep you must pray to Jesus. Do you pray?"

"Yes, sar. I tries to pray as well as I knows how," said she.

"But do you know how. If you can ask for bread when you are hungry, you can pray. And Jesus will take care of you if you ask Him,"

"I will, I'll remember," said the old woman, devoutly.

Presently we came to a man sitting on a stool in the sunshine. An old man, wrinkled as a mummy, with tufts of white wool on his head, and a vacant look of imbecile age in his dim eyes.

"You are enjoying this fine weather, aren't you?" said General Howard, holding out his hand.

The old man muttered some vague reply.

"What is your name?" asked the General.

"Robert Jackson."

"And do you know my name?"

"General Howard. I sees you down in Virginny," replied the negro, lighting up a little.

"So you did. And now I want to know if you love Jesus?"

"I tries to best I can," replied the old man.

"Do you think Jesus loves you?" asked the General.

"I think so," answered the negro doubtfully.

"But don't you know he does?" asked General Howard,

"I specs he does if I'm good," replied the man after a little reflection.

"He loves you even though you are not good. He has always loved and remembered you," said the General, tenderly.

The old man looked about feebly. "I must try to be good," he said.

"So you must, that is right," said General Howard with a good bye smile.

Then we went to see a woman named Pagie, who sat in a large rocking chair propped with pillows. Her head was drawn upon her breast and her body twisted by rheumatism. She could move only her hands and eyes and lips, but she was busy sewing and had a patient, cheerful face.

"The docter hasn't cured you yet Pagie," said Gen. Howard.

"Tisn't the doctor's fault I am not cured," replied Pagie with a quick smile, "I am glad to hear the docter is doing as well as he can. Do you suffer much pain?"

"Heaps," she answered with another smile.

"Can you read, Pagie?"

"No sir," Pagie answered. "I am wanting to learn. I wouldn't expect to read much but if I could only make out a few verses in the Bible it would help me bear my troubles."

General Howard took a slip of paper from his pocket and with his one hand wrote upon it.

"Here Pagie," said he, "is a text from the Bible for you. 'Though He slay me yet will I trust in Him.' Can you say that?"

"Yes sir. When I first lost my mother and had to give up my child it was pretty hard, though."

"Though He slay me, yet will I trust in Him," repeated General Howard, "say it after me."

"Though He slay me, yet will I trust in Him," said Pagie, with another smile that made her poor distorted face almost beautiful.

"You must get some one to read it to you occasionally so you won't forget it. And then she must say it to you," added the General, turning to a withered old woman who sat in a corner. "Let me hear if you can say it now."

"Though—He—slay—me—I will trust in Him," repeated the old woman, sitting up square and straight, her black face beaming with delight

Thus from one to another, with a word and a smile for each.

"The man of many battles,
  With tears his eyelids pressing,
Streched over those dusky foreheads
  His one-armed blessing."

LOCAL OPTION.

In glancing over the resolutions of both the Democratic and Republican County Conventions, I noticed an ommission, in my judgment, on one of the most important topics of the day—one which lies close to the heart of many of our best citizens. The subjects of damages and "nine million steal" were duly noted and acted upon, but the fact that the voice of 100,000 petitioners call for a local option bill was altogether over looked, or entirely disregarded. This was an over sight that is altogether inexcusable if we look, either at the fairness of the measure, or magnitude of the cause, whether the friends of that measure will allow such conduct to pass unrebuked, remains to be seen. I spoke of the fairness of the measure. It is in the highest sense democratic and in perfect accord with the principles of our government. As prohibitionists we claim that the evils of the license system are too intolerable to be borne, but we are willing that the majority should rule, and we only ask that the citizens of every city, borough or township shall have the privilege, if they desire it, of determining for themselves whether they will have license or no license. Certainly nothing can be more fair than this. We can ask no less and the rum power plainly shows its utter disregard for all justice and right by its opposition. It may be well for politicians to remember that there are a few that can be temperance men on election day, and their number is increasing. H.

A SHOWER OF LIZARDS.

A few evenings ago our town was visited by the first rain which has fallen for three months. It seemed, since the 1st of May, that the "dry season" of the early years had returned, and that we were again to have Summer without a drop of rain. The rain, however, though grateful and welcome, was not much of a surprise; but connected with it was a phenomenon without precedent in this section, unexplained by any of our philosophers, nothing more nor less than a shower of water lizards. Over all the Western part of the town, particularly round the opera house, they were found in great numbers, and of every length from two to eight inches. In looking over the ground to-day we found a number already quite dried up; and we note with surprise there is so little substance in them as to leave nothing more than a mere skeleton.

The greatest number seems to have fallen on Judge Spicer's premises. His cellar, lately dug, previously dry as a powder house, contained several inches of water literally alive with these singular creatures.

The Judge fished up some forty of the largest ones, and has them alive in a water tank near his house, where the curious may inspect them. On examination we found them to have boneless limbs, and and bodies very soft and "mushy;" they are quite lively in the water, but soon get dry, dull and inactive when laid out on the ground. They more nearly resemble the reptile known in the Northwest as the "mud-puppy," than any other we have seen; their color is a dull brown, with bright spots, and their general make-up in other respects places them in the siredom class. The usual theory of "toad showers" is that the numerous toads seen after a sudden rain were really in the ground and were drawn out by the moisture; but that explanation is cut off in this case by two facts: First, that these are clearly water reptiles and die in a few minutes on dry land. Second, the ground has been so hard and dry that soft-bodied reptiles could not have penetrated it. The walls of Judge Spicer's cellar on Saturday afternoon were as solid as a brick wall. Another singular fact is that numbers of the reptiles were found in the rain barrel where they could not have crawled. One gentleman informs us that he collected two hundred in a small puddle on Colorado street. We noticed the dried remains of one which was seven inches in length, yet would not weigh an ounce.

THE PRUSSIAN GOVERNMENT.—The form of government of Prussia proper is that of a constitutional monarchy, hereditary in the male line of the house of Hohenzollern. The constitution, formed in 1848, vests the executive and part of the legislative authority in the King. In the executive branch he is assisted by a council of ministers appointed by himself. The legislative bodies consist of the "Herrenhans," which is the upper chamber, and is composed of the princes of the royal family, sixteen "mediatized" friends, the heads of the territorial nobility, eight life peers, eight titled noblemen elected by the resident land owners in the eight provinces, representatives of the universities, the heads of "chapters," the mayors of towns having more than 50,000 inhabitants, and persons nominated at the pleasure of the King. The second Chamber is composed of 432 members, chosen for three years by general but not universal suffrage.

Every Prussian subject is enrolled in the army upon reaching the age of twenty, and serves three years in the regular army, four in the reserves, and nine in the "Landwehr," or militia. Even at the age of fifty he is not exempt from military duty, but is then enrolled in the "Landsturm," or "home guard." On a peace footing a Prussian regiment consists of three battalions, numbering 518 each; in war the battalions are increased to 1002 each.

SENTIMENTAL.—The bull dog barks on the top of the hill, and the lambs are skipping in glee; but I'm sad as the dickens—I am, my gal gave the mitten to me. Ah, where will I go, and what will I do? I feel like a crazy bumlebee, by thunder, I'll fight! I'll kick any boy that says the word mitten to me! I'm realy mad—be dogged if I ain't! I swear I will kill any she; I'll slander and slash—I'll murder that gal—by thunder she shan't mitten me'! No I won't do that I'll spite her—I will! I'll hang myself on a big tree; and then she will cry—she'll die in remorse—for given the mitten to me.

MINORITY REPRESENTATION.

The principle of Minority Representation is gaining ground, and sooner or later will be generally recognized and adopted. The idea of ignoring large constituencies, simply because they happen to be in a minority in given districts, seems inconsistent with the idea of popular representation. Thus the 8,000 Republican voters in Berks and the 9,000 Democratic votes in Lancaster, are practically ignored and have no voice either in State or County legislation. The same principle applies to all counties, and to Boroughs, Townships and Districts. Senator Buckalew has been aiming to correct this injustice by his system of cumulative voting. Besides, it is maintained that there will be a better class of candidates presented under this system by both parties, with less tendency to corruption and greater economy and integrity in county and municipal matters, where both political parties are represented. The Convention of the friends of Minority Representation at Reading last week was attended by some of the ablest men of the State—among them Senator Buckalew, John W. Forney and Morton McMichael. The former made an elaborate speech in vindication of his theory. The resolutions adopted by the meeting fully explain the system, and we give the principal ones below:

1. That the practice which has grown up in the Legislature of Pennsylvania of submitting all matters of local legislation to the exclusive control of local Representatives, has practically placed the local, political and business interests of minority constituencies requiring legislation, at the mercy of majority local representatives, and has afforded such a continued series of wrongs and of petty oppression, as loudly calls for reform.

2. That we can conceive of no other remedy for such wrong and oppression, except in a system which will secure to each local minority, as near as can be, its proportional share of local representation.

3. That such minority representation will not only remedy the wrongs, of which we more especially complain, but will also tend to lessen unjust and illiberal partisanship, and to promote greater purity in legislation.

4. That a fair and proportionate representation of minorities by Districts is not only just, but is in accord with the spirit of all our State political systems, which provide for the election of Legislators by districts in order to protect the minority at large from the unjust domination of the majority, as well as to guard the interests of localities, and which we propose now to supplement by placing the local minority beyond the reach of the unjust domination of the local majority.

5. That in view of the taking of the present census and the approaching Legislative reapportionment of the State, we recommend the passage of Acts of Assembly by the next Legislature embodying the principles of minority representation in reference to the Legislature. Boards of County Commissoners, Directors of the Poor and County Auditors, as well as township and other offices.

6. That we recommend the passage of an Act of Assembly providing for a Constitutional Convention, to be composed of members elected on the minority principle, and to such convention, in making the constitutional reforms so loudly demanded for years, we respectfully recommend that the principle of minority representation, be embodied in the new constitution of our Commonwealth.

The seventh, eight and ninth resolutions tender "hearty congratulations to the people of Illinois for their great and salutary advance in the art of self-government, by adopting the plan of the free vote, for the election of Representatives in their Legislature; and for the choice of directors and managers of all incorporated companies in their State;" invite the people of Pennsylvania, of every political party, to unite in promoting the objects embodied in the foregoing resolutions: that the Chairman of the Convention appoint an Executive Committee of twenty-one persons to serve during the coming year. The tenth resolution is as follows:

10. That a committee of five be appointed, who shall lay the proceedings of this Convention before the next Legislature, and who shall be authorized, by means of an address, and by personal intercourse, to enforce upon the members of the two Houses, the objects contemplated in the resolutions passed by this Convention.

A COUNTRYMAN stopped at the Maxwell House, Nashville, for dinner. The waiter inquired what he would have, and was told by the countryman to bring "something what they had." The waiter brought him a regular dinner upon small dishes, as is the usual form, and set them around his plate. The countryman surveyed them carefully for a moment, and then broke out, "Well, I like your samples, now bring me dinner.

AN IOWA John lately courted and engaged to marry a young girl, who in a huff at some neglect on John's part, revenged herself by marrying Isaac, John's father. John countered by marrying the mother of his recent betrothed—John becoming the step-father of his own step-mother, while Isaac's wife was compelled to become the daughter-in-law of her step-son.

NEW MODE OF RAISING MONEY.—All sorts of dodges are resorted to in a great city to make money. The most novel one heard of lately is that practised by a sharp in New York. He is charged with starting a bogus Masonic lodge, and initiating therein victims at the rate of $20 per head. Some twenty of his victims are ready to appear against him. He is under arrest.

EXPERIMENTS have been tried at the Springfield armory for a year past with a view to ascertain the best plan to preserve arms from weather wear, and nickel plating has proved so efficient a process that by order of the department at Washington muskets and sabres have been sent to the establishment where the patent is held, to receive the plate.

MORE TROUBLE.—The Erie Republican says the politicians in the Crawford Congressional district are in trouble. There appears to be one acre too much in the district, as the vote for ten days has stood every time, two for Acre, two for Dick and four for Gilfillan. "Why the Dick-ens" don't some one buy that Acre?

MISS SUSIE C. MILLER, of New Port, Perry county, was so severely burned on Wednesday of last week by coal oil, that she died in twenty-four hours. She had gone to the store to get the oil, and was holding a lamp to assist the party drawing it, when it ignited setting her clothes on fire, with the above result.

POPULATION follows the locomotive, and the post office follows population. In Kansas, where some 800 miles of railroad have been built recently, 212 post offices have been established during the last four months, and petitions are received daily for a further increase.

"Barber," said a farmer to his tonsor, "now corn's cheap, you ought to shave for half price." "Can't, Mr. B." said the man of razors, "I ought really to charge more, for when corn's down farmers make such long faces that I have twice the ground to go over."

MORGAN, who was recently hanged at Terre Haute, made the following reasonable remark in his "valedictory;" "Well, I don,t know that I,ve much to say, except that I had better be going." And he went.

THE Republicans of Allegheny have renominated Gen. James S. Negley, for Congress in the Pittsburg district, and James L. Graham in the 23d district, composed of part of Allegheny and Butler and Armstrong, now represented by Darwin Phelps.

REV. W. B. RABER, the Republican nominee for Congress in the York, Cumberland and Perry district, is a native of East Berlin, in this county, but has resided for a number of years in York, Bloomfield, and now in Mechanicsburg. He has an extensive acquaintance in his district, and is universally esteemed for his high Christian character and large-hearted benevolence. Although engaged in the active duties of the Ministry, he is thoroughly familiar with the political relations of the country, and will be able to deal more intelligently with the complex theories of Finance, Revenue, Tariff, Banking, &c., than three-fourths of the professional politicians now holding seats in Congress. We are sure the 15th district would lose nothing but gain much in his election. Although the district has a large Democratic majority, Mr. Raber's great personal popularity and the widespread disaffection in the Democratic ranks consequent on Haldeman's renomination, will command an unusually heavy vote for the former. We are glad to learn that his friends are working hopefully. If they succeed, as we trust they may, our neighbors will have a Representative of whom they may be proud—a Christian gentleman, a steady firm friend of the right, who can be relied on in all issues involving the public good.

THE Poor House is generally understood to be extravagantly and wastefully managed. The expenses of conducting it are certainly enormous, and the products of the Farm are far below what our farmers think it ought to produce. We have heard some curious stories illustrating both these facts, but we do not print them.

It is sufficient to call general attention to this fact, and to the necesity of having a Board of Directors who are honest, capable, attentive, and faithful to the public in the discharge of duty.

We suggest to every voter who has an acquaintance in Straban township where Jacob B. Millar lately lived and of whose School board he was a member for some time, to ask him whether Jacob B. Millar is in his opinion a fit man to elect Director of the Poor. And we venture to assert that, whether he is a Democrat or Republican, three out of five of the residents of Straban will unqualifiedly say he is not the proper man.

Let the voters inquire who Jacob B. Millar is, and who J. Watson Barr is, and we have no doubt of the verdict, if made up on that testimony.

OUR Republican friends must be on their guard against all manner of charges against the Republican party, and its candidates this fall. Without any recognized principles to present to the people, the Democracy rely solely on appeals to popular prejudice. It is a little too early to start "rhoorbacks," but the work has been begun. One of these was put afloat last week, to the effect, that George J. Bond, a one-armed soldier in the Second Auditor's office at Washington, who married a lady of this place, had been removed, and a negro appointed in his place. We need hardly say that the story is false in every particular. Mr. Bond has not been removed, and no negro has been appointed to his desk. Mr. Bond, hearing of the silly story, writes to Jacob A. Kitzmiller, Esq., Postmaster at this place, indignantly denouncing it as "a Reb falsehood." It is too early to commence this game. We simply advert to it, to put our Republican friends on there guard in the future.

THE Harrisburg Patriot, of which B. F. Meyers is editor, in noticing the withdrawal of Mr. Bratton in the 15th Congressional district, boasts that Haldeman, the Free-Trade Democratic candidate, "has now no opposition in his district, unless the nomination by the Radicals of a slang-whanging political preacher, named Raber, may be called opposition." The very large number of members of the United Brethren Church, both in the Fifteenth and our own district, will doubtless be highly gratified with Mr. Meyers' caricature of one of the most honored clergymen of their Church. Ministers of the Gospel, as a general rule, were loyal to the country during the trying days of the Rebellion, and encountered the bitter denunciation of the Copperheads.—Meyers finds it difficult, even when soliciting votes, to abandon the bad habit then formed.

THE Republican County Committee met at the Eagle Hotel, on Saturday.—Dr. E. G. Fahnestock was elected Chairman and John M. Krauth, Esq., Secretary. The attendance was unusually large, and the best feeling evinced, with encouraging representations from all parts of the county. The Republicans of the county are a unit in support of the ticket, while from various quarters we hear of disaffection in the Democratic ranks, growing out of dissatisfaction with the wretched mismanagement of the county finances, increased taxes and an enormous county debt.

THE Democracy have been busy ciphering out Democratic victories—on paper. This has been their game for the last ten years, on the eve of important elections. The figures, however, are always sadly marred by actual results.—Just now they are busy on the idea of popular re-action and, the disintegration of the Republican party. Vermont and Maine have already been heard from and tell a different story. So it will be with Pennsylvania.

MR. BRATTON, of the Carlisle Volunteer, has succumbed to the party lash, and withdraws from the Congressional contest, leaving the field to Messrs. Raber and Haldeman.

ONE of the first fruits of the downfall of Napoleon and the proclamation of the French Republic, is the absorption by Italy of the temporal dominions of the Pope. For years Italy has looked with longing eyes to Rome as its natural capital, but French bayonets stood in the way. The latter being called off, popular clamor throughout Italy demanded that Italian troops be marched at once to Rome. Victor Emanuel, in order to forestall popular demonstrations, resolved to take the initiative and at last accounts his troops had advanced into the Papal territory. Pius IX, while protesting against the invasion of his territory, issued orders to the few troops at his command not to attempt any resistence, which would be useless. Victor Emanuel, on the other hand, in case of non-resistance, offers to guarantee the personal security and independence of the Pope as the ecclesiastical head of the church. A vote of the inhabitants of the Papal territory will be taken, as to whether they desire to be annexed to Italy or not, their decision to be regarded; but as the Italian troops were received with popular demonstrations of joy as soon as they crossed the frontier, there can be no doubt as to the result of the proposed vote. In a few days Italian nationality, with Rome as its capital, will have been firmly established—and that without bloodshed or revolution.

MAINE follows Vermont in the assertion of her steady devotion to Republican principles, triumphantly electing Sidney Perham, Governor, with a full Congressional delegation, and an overwhelming majority in the Legislature. The following telegram from Speaker Blaine tells the whole story:

> AUGUSTA, Me., Sept. 13.
> We have elected our Governor by about the same majority as last year; carried all five of the Congressional districts—the closest one by fourteen hundred majority; have chosen an overwhelming majority in both branches of the Legislature, and elected county officers in every county except two. This result has been achieved without effort and without any canvass of the State.
> JAMES G. BLAINE,
> Chairman Rep. State Committee.

LAST year the Republican majority of Vermont was 20,379—this year it was 22,000. If the Democrats lose 2000 a year, how long will it take them to get possession of the State?

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—An exchange says this is the last trick of a pedler: He goes to the house of a lady to sell perfumery. He allows her to "sample" all the goods, and finally gets her to smelling chloroform, puts her to sleep and ransacks the house. Beware of all essence pedlers. In fact, it is safe to beware of all pedlers. Buy of your regular dealers. You will make by it in the end.

LIGHTNING CURE DEAD.—"Doctor" J. E. Allen, who visited our town last April vending patent medicines and giving gratuitous musical entertainments, died at Freehold, New Jersey, week before last, He drove into the village and was shortly after found wandering about the streets in a delirious state. He was conveyed to a hotel, and died the next morning. Deceased hailed from Williamsport, Pa., and is supposed to have died from the effects of sunstroke, although some think that dissipation had much to do with his untimely demise.

WONDER IF IT'S TRUE.—A distinguished German professor recently announced that if a drop of human blood was placed under a microscope capable of magnifying it twenty millions of times, it would show all kinds of animals that have ever existed, or now existing on the earth. In the blood of a healthy person the animals are quiet, in that of a sick person they fight. From this he draws the conclusion that man has within him all the elements from which the universe was created. He further says that if a dead cat was flung in a pond of water and left to decompose, the drops of water should show, when under the microscope, all the animals belonging to the cat species.

☞ Eminent men of Science have discovered that electricity and magnetism are developed in the system from the iron in the blood. This accounts for the debility, low spirits, and lack of energy a person feels when this vital element becomes reduced. MINISTER WASHBURNE'S SPEECH.

PARIS, September 9.—The following is the address delivered by Mr. Washburne to the crowd of people and soldiers who came to serenade him last evening:

"I thank you on the part of my Government for this demonstration. I shall have great pleasure in transmitting the thanks, expressed with so much eloquence, for recognition of the new Republic of France. In my communication, to which you make such kind greeting, I have but made known the sentiments of the President and people of the United States of America, who take profound interest in the great movement just inaugurated in France, and will desire most fervently its success and the happiness and prosperity of the French people. Existing themselves under a Republican form of Government, they know how to appreciate its benefits. With warm hearts and language they felicitate their old allies on the accomplishment of a pacific revolution free from all stain of blood, and claiming the sympathy of all lovers of true liberty."

Along the boulevards to-night there were shouts of "Vive United States" and "Vive Independence." The action of the United States Government is warmly commented on in all parts of the city.

REPLY OF JULES FAVRE.

PARIS, September 9.—The official journal of the Republic to-day publishes the reply of Jules Favre to Minister Washburne. He says he considers it a happy augury for the French Republic to have obtained her first recognition from the United States, who founded their wise and careful institutions on independence and civil virtue, and in spite of the terrible ordeals which they have passed through, conserved with unshaken firmness their faith in the great principle of liberty, whence issues dignity and prosperity. Nations desirous to become masters of their destiny, must follow the course pursued by you; must take as symbols the love of industry and respect of the rights of all. This is the programme of the Government just established here, from an unfortunate crisis, the result of the follies of despotism. But at this moment we can have but one care—to deliver the nation from the enemy. There again we have the benefit of your example, your persevering courage. In the accomplishment of this task we count upon the support of all men of heart and all Governments interested in the triumphs of peace. Strong in the justice of our cause, we have a firm hope of success, and the adhesion of the Government of Washington gives us confidence. Members of our Government request that we make known to you our gratitude, and beg you transmit it to your Government.

GRATITUDE TO THE UNITED STATES.

Jules Favre called again to-day to reiterate his thanks to the nation and to Minister Washburne. The La France newspaper recalls the fact that in 1848 the United States was the first country to recognize the French Republic, and she is first again in 1870.

ADDRESS OF THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT TO THE PEOPLE OF FRANCE.

PARIS, September 9.—The Journal Official de la Rebublique publishes the following address from the Government of Defence to the French people:

Frenchmen—In proclaiming four days ago a Government for the National Defence, we defined our mission. Power had fallen to the ground. He who commenced with crime ended with desertion. We have done nothing but taken again the Government fallen from powerless hands. But Europe wants to be enlightened, and and it is necessary that she should learn by unexceptional evidence that the entire country is with us. The invader must meet in his path not only an immense city resolved to perish rather than surrender, but a people on their feet and organized, and a representative assembly besides, which can carry everywhere and despite all disasters the living soul of the country. The Government accordingly decrees:

Article First—The Electoral Colleges are convoked for Sunday, the 17th day of October, for the purpose of choosing a National Constitutional Assembly.

Second—The election shall be held at the regular polling places in conformity with the law of 15th of March, 1849.

Third—The number of members of the Constitutional Assembly is fixed at 750.

Fourth—The Minister of the Interior is charged with the execution of the present decree.

Done at the Hotel de Ville, Paris, Sept. 8, 1870.

WHAT GENERAL TROCHU IS DOING.

PARIS, September 9.—It is understood that General Trochu intends using sharp shooters on a large scale. They are to be stationed in all parts of the enemy's line of march to harrass them. General Trochu has issued orders to the Garde Mobile of the Seine to join the posts assigned to them or be subjected to military law. This is done because some of them are lagging.

FIGHT TO THE LAST.

A great number of political meetings were held last night, all of which were of the most orderly character. They all agree in the determination to fight to the last. Most of the workshops in Paris are closed. All shops close early. No business was done to-day. The city is filled with troops drilling in the streets under experienced officers. A large force has gone out to meet the enemy. The forts are all prepared, and earth defences have been thrown up.

THE ARMIES DELAYED BY THE WEATHER—RESISTANCE OF THE GARDE MOBILE.

PARIS, September 10.—The heavy rains of the last few days have retarded the Prussians between Rethel and Rheims, and it is only with much difficulty that their artillery can be moved over the heavy roads. At several places near Tris, trees have been cut down so as to impede the progress of the enemy. The Garde Mobile have attacked the Prussians at different points, killing, wounding and capturing numbers of them. The Garde Nationale are to do guard duty on the ramparts.

LAON BLOWN UP BY THE PRUSSIANS—IMPEDIMENTS IN THE WAY—METZ AND TOUL STILL HOLDING OUT.

PARIS, September 11, via LONDON.—The Eastern Railway is still open to Noyent, and the Prussians are at Chateau Thiery, advancing on Forte Sous Jovarre, The rolling stock of the road is withdrawn as the enemy advances and the bridges and culverts destroyed before the track is abandoned.

Prussian scouts are reported at Viller, Acrony, Vervuil, Chatillon, Montmasne, Vailly, Sur Aisne, Sesarme and Lehonny. They maintain strict discipline and commit no depredations.

General Trochu has given orders to level all the roads in sight of Paris on the enemy's approach.

The citadel of Laon was surrendered to save the city from destruction. The Prussians subsequently blew up the fortifications. The Prussians have impressed into their service young men at Montmirail, whom they found assembled for conspiration. The garrison of Toul still holds out, and they have made several effective sorties. Marshal Bazaine does not remain inactive, and he is constantly sending out expeditions to harrass the Prussians. The enemy have captured some guns and munitions of war on the way to Strasbourg.

The Emperor of Russia has conferred the order of St. George on Prince Louis William, Duke of Bavaria, as a mark of his admiration of the gallantry displayed by the Bavarian troops.

THE KING AND THE EMPEROR.

BERLIN, September 10.—King William wrote to the Queen describing his emotions on meeting the French Emperor. He says: "It was overwhelming for a moment. I could not control myself on thus meeting him whom three years ago I saw at the summit of grandeur. The Emperor was equally moved."

BERLIN, September 10.—The following despatch, dated at the Prussian headquarters at Rheims last night, was received to-day:

"More than 25,000 French prisoners were captured in front of Sedan before the capitulation on the 2d instant. By the capitulation 83,000 prisoners fell into our hands. Of these 14,000 were wounded. Besides the prisoners 400 field pieces, including 70 mitrailleures, 150 siege guns, 10,000 horses and an immense amount of war material were surrendered."

VARIOUS ITEMS.

TUESDAY, Sept. 13.—The effort by neutral nations to establish peace between France and Prussia, or at least to procure an armstice to allow time for negotiations, is favored by to-day's news from Europe. There were rumors in Paris yesterday that Russia is insisting on a cessation of hostilities, and that the United States Government has sent three decided despatches to Berlin on the subject. One despatch was, we are informed from Europe, sent to Minister Bancroft expressing a hope that, as the dethronement of Napoleon was accomplished, the war would be ended, created a great sensation, and was sent immediately to King William in the field. Our despatches from Washington deny that any such despatches were transmitted, and says that "our Government will scrupulously refrain from interfering in the affairs of foreign nations." Many of the English journals urge intervention as a duty, the neglect of which will involve dishonor. The veteran diplomatist, Thiers, left Paris yesterday on a secret mission to London, Vienna and St. Petersburg. In consequence of the prospects of an armistice the Diplomatic Corps have deferred their departure from Paris. The Prussian armies advanced on Paris until they reached Meaux and Crecy, twenty-five miles east and northeast of the city. The nearest point at which the advance of the army are reported is Noisy le Grand, which is nine miles east of Paris. The main army appears to have been distant about twenty-five miles, where, according to a London despatch, it was halted by the request of Bismarck in order to consider the joint proposition of Russia and Austria for an armistice. A Paris despatch says that on Saturday the Prussians attacked Toul, and after a battle ranging from five o'clock in the morning until nine o'clock at night were repulsed with a loss of ten thousand. At Montmedy last Thursday the garrison repulsed a Prussian attack, and Verdun still holds out. Lord Lyons, who has been acting as the mediator between France and Prussia, has resigned the task in favor of the Austrian Minister. A Paris despatch says that the Supreme Tribunal of Laws has been removed from Paris to Tours. A despatch from King William to Queen Augusta says that the citadel of Laon exploded after its surrender, just as the Prussians were preparing to enter. Three hundred lives were lost, principally French. The King says there must have treason. King William's headquarters are to be at Rheims, where the Prussian army is concentrating. Bismarck says that he will have such a tremendous force in France as must crush resistance, and especially prevent everywhere the organization of new forces. Bazaine refuses to surrender at Metz. When informed that Napoleon and McMahon were prisoners, and that the Emperor advised the capitulation of Metz, Bazaine declared that he would not respect Napoleon's wishes, and would shoot any French officer advising a surrender.

ROME FOR ITALY.

A despatch from Florence says that Italian troops yesterday entered the States of the Church. Italy's ultimatum substantially strips the Pope of his temporal power. The local authority of the Roman territory, however, remains undisturbed by the Italians. A London despatch says that a vote is to be taken in Rome by which the people are to decide for the Pope or the King, the decision to be binding.

FAILURE OF PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 14.—Despatches from London and Paris represent that all efforts to bring about an armistice have failed, and the march on Paris continues. King William is reported to have declined all negotiations for peace until the Prussian army has arrived before Paris, and a Government is found able to negotiate and guarantee that any terms agreed on will be maintained by France. At present there is general mistrust in Europe as to the permanency of the present Provisional Government. The Prussian forces had reached various places in the environs of Paris, on the Northeast and East. M. Thiers was in London and had a long interview with Earl Granville, the English Secretary of Foreign Affairs. It is supposed that his mission is to induce England to propose mediation for peace or an armistice, and that he represents the Provisional Government of France. The Times says that the conditions probably embrace the dismantling of Metz and Strasbourg, or their occupation for three years by the Germans, as a pledge of Peace. Earl Granville is reported to have declined mediation, on the ground that France had resisted all attempts of England to prevent the war, and must now suffer the consequences.

There were rumors of the surrender of Bazaine at Metz, with predictions that Strasbourg would capitulate within a week.

THE LATEST.

CONTINUED ADVANCE OF THE PRUSSIANS—CONFLICT NEAR ROME.

THURSDAY, Sept. 15.—Despatches from London state that mail and telegraphic communications with Paris are suspended. The Prussians were closing in around Paris, and had cut the telegraph wires within five miles of the city. The French have blown up a number of bridges, set fire to the woods, and destroyed houses, around Paris, as the Prussians advance.

A Berlin despatch says that Germany will not recognize the French Republic in any arrangement for peace. When Paris is taken the Senate and Corps Legislatif, with the Regency and the Government de jure, can, and it is expected will, resume their sessions and appoint a Commission to accept the terms of peace. The Empress will return, Napoleon will be released, and, continues the despatch, France will be left to have any form of Government the people may want.

The Papal Zouaves garrisoning Castellana, a small town of the Papal States, on the Tiber, about thirty miles north of Rome, resisted the march of the Italian army under General Cadorna towards Rome. After an hour's fight the Zouaves were defeated and taken prisoners, and the army continued its advance on Rome. The Pope refuses to acknowledge the authority of King Victor Emanuel, but the Italian troops were closing in on Rome, and were everywhere most cordially welcomed by the inhabitants.

TO THE NERVOUS.

The natural result of exhaustion of strength by excessive labor or action, is a feeling of weakness, dullness, heaviness, weariness, languor of body or mind, &c. Persons of a weak constitution, or whose habits are sedentary, frequently complain of this relaxed condition of the vital energies; and when persons of a nervous temperament are thus weakened and debilitated, disease inevitably follows, unless it is at once checked and overcome. All who suffer from these causes alike require a remedy which will strengthen the system without exciting it, and awake a feeling of true enjoyment, so that life may become a source of pleasure. MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS has won its way into the confidence of thousands of this class of persons, who warmly endorse it as the best invigorating agent, and the most potent and genial of all tonics and alteratives for strengthening and restoring the physical constitution. MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

The Society invites the exhibition of any and everything that may be useful or convenient in the practice of Agriculture or Horticulture, or be the product of either; all articles and implements of convenience or use in the domestic or social life, or of all the products of art and skill, and for all such things of merit although not enumerated in the foregoing list, premiums or diplomas may be awarded.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

All Articles and Animals for Exhibition must be properly entered at the Business office. The Grounds and Buildings will be opened on Monday the 26th of September, to receive them; and trusty persons employed by the Society will assign them places and guard the grounds. Articles shipped beforehand will be properly cared for.

No entry for competition will be made after Tuesday; nor can anything entered be removed from the grounds till the close of the Fair, without permission of the President.

The Judges are requested to present themselves at the Business Office, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday, and to report their awards to the Secretary before 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday.

Articles and animals can only be entered to compete in one class, and no one can have two premiums awarded to it.

During the examination of horses, no person excepting those having charge of the stock, judges and officers attending to their duties, will, under any pretence or excuse, be admitted within the ring.

Hay, straw and water will be supplied free of charge, for all animals entered for premiums; and grain will be provided at the lowest cost price, for those who desire to purchase.

All articles and animals entered for exhibition free of charge.

All awarded premiums uncalled for, for thirty days after the close of the Fair, shall be deemed donated to the Society.

Premiums shall not be awarded when the animal or article is deemed unworthy.

All articles must be marked with cards, which will be furnished by the Secretary, designating class and number; and these cards must not be removed until after the Awarding Committees have finished their examinations.

The Executive Committee will take every possible precaution for the safe keeping of all articles on exhibition, after their arrival and arrangements, but the Society will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. They desire exhibitors to give personal attention to their animals or articles, and at the close of the Fair attend to their removal.

No animal or article shall be taken out of the Fair Grounds without the leave of the President.

Exhibitors are expected to obey the Marshals promptly in producing their stock, when instructed to do so; and any person proving refractory will be ruled out from competing.

No animal or article will be assigned a place on the grounds until the entries are made, as the regulations of the Society require.

Persons renting refreshment booths will not be permitted to sell intoxicating drinks.

Any person found intoxicated upon the Fair Grounds, or acting in a disorderly manner, shall be immediately ejected from the grounds.

A prompt and severe example will be made of any fraudulent use of Admission Tickets.

Any person attempting to interfere with the judges, in their adjudications, will be promptly excluded from competition.

Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of the entry, or any other important matter, which the committee feel incompetent to decide, they may at once report the same to the President.

LECTURE.—We are informed that S. M. Hewlett, who pleased the people so well last winter with "Muzzle that Dog," has been secured to deliver his famous lecture on "Hits at the Times." The lecture will take place in Agricultural Hall on Friday evening the 30th inst. As Mr. Hewlett is engaged for near every evening from now until next June all who would enjoy his unsurpassed genius would do well by improving this their last opportunity for this season.

STOLEN.—In the early part of the summer a $10 gold piece and some silver half-dollars were stolen from the residence of Mr. John Hartman, of Franklin township. Mr. H. has been quietly pursuing his inquiries in regard to the larceny, but has been unable definitely to trace the stolen property. As the money has probably changed hands ere this, any person who received gold or silver of that description from parties not likely to come into possession of them by ordinary business transactions will confer a favor on Mr. Hartman and at the same time promote the ends of justice, by advising him of the fact.

IMPROVEMENTS.—John Norbeck has remodeled his dwelling house, in Mountjoy township, rendering it one of the handsomest in that vicinity.

David Stewart has erected a large two-story brick dwelling, on his farm, in Highland township.

Aloysius Eckenrode has built a two-story weatherboarded dwelling house and back building, in Mountpleasant township.

Wm. Kuhns, Charles Crouse and Mrs. Mary L. Bittinger are having dwelling houses built in Littlestown.

John Ertter, Sr. has raised to two stories and otherwise improved his dwelling house, on South Washington street, in this place.

S. R. Tipton has put up a two-story broom factory, on East Middle street.

George Swope, Esq., has near completion a very fine brick carriage house and stable, on North Stratton street.

CENSUS.—Emmitsburg has 707 inhabitants; 145 dwellings and 829 families. Mechanicstown has 593 inhabitants; 119 dwellings and 125 families.

Mr. Sullivan sends us the following statistics of his district:

Hamiltonban Township.—White males 685; white females 705; colored males 16; colored females 12—population 1418; dwellings 245; families 259; deaths 18. Population of Fairfield 238.

Highland Township.—White males 204; white females 204; colored males 7; colored females 6—population 421; dwellings 72; families 76; deaths 3.

We have no separate statistics of Hamiltonban and Highland in 1860. Hamiltonban had a population of 1653 in 1860, showing a loss of 235. But the territory now forming Highland was largely taken from Hamiltonban, with small portions of Franklin and Cumberland. Hamiltonban and Highland now have a joint population of 1839, being 186 in excess of what Hamiltonban had in 1860. Fairfield had a population of 218 in 1860—being a gain of 40 in ten years.

BASE BALL.—A well contested game of Base Ball between the "Gettysburg Nine" and a "Scrub Nine" of this place, terminated on Saturday last in a victory for the latter. Three innings were played on the 5th; the game being adjourned to Saturday last, when the remaining innings were played. We annex the score:

A full corps of competent teachers has been secured, the purpose being to spare no efforts to make it a FIRST-CLASS institution. The course of study will comprise all the English branches usually pursued in Seminaries for young ladies, besides Ancient and Modern Languages, Music, Drawing, Painting, Needle and Wax work. OUR RULERS AND OUR RIGHTS.—Since the breaking out of the War, public attention has turned instinctively to the examination of our form of government to ascertain its powers, functions, and capacity. Strange as it may seem, there were no books adapted to give the information sought, and the people were compelled to depend on the newspapers for such meagre scraps as could be picked up from time to time. This was very unsatisfactory, and every intelligent person felt the want of some manual at once reliable, concise, and full. We believe that we have in the work before us, a book which supplies this want. "Our Rulers and our Rights or the outlines of the U. S. Government," treats very fully of the origin, organization and functions of every department of the general government, and very much pertaining to the several States. It would take columns to describe all the work contains.

The power of condensation and method show great skill in the author. The design is admirable. The plan is well carried out. The price is very moderate. It contains over 500 pages, has four steel engravings, and excellent large sized seals of the different States. Messrs. PARMELEE & Co., of Philadelphia, deserve the thanks of the whole country for publishing a work like this, free from all political bias, and adapted to the wants of the common people.

We predict an immense sale. Every citizen would do well to secure a copy while they have the opportunity. It is sold only by subscription. Watch for the Agent and secure this valuable work.

☞Mr. John A. Atwell, Agent for Parmelee & Co., is now canvassing this county for the above work. 1t

WARNER & CO., are now selling off their large variety of Pictures, Picture Frames, Brackets, &c., at cost. Remember their room is on the South-east corner Centre Square. Call and see. 1t

THE HOME OF WASHINGTON.—Messrs. A. S. Hale & Co., Hartford, Conn., are publishing an attractive work under the title of "The Home of Washington, or Mount Vernon and its Associations," by Benson J. Lossing, author of "Field Book of the Revolution," "History of the United States," &c. Mr. Lossing's previous publications have had a wide sale, being characterized by sterling merit and superior typographical execution. The present work is pronounced by competent judges the most attractive of all his publications, being profusely illustrated with finely executed engravings, most of them by Mr. Lossing himself. We can recommend it to the public without qualification, as one of the very best books sold by subscription. Messrs. Jacob Beamer & C. G. Miller are the canvassing Agents for Adams county, and only through them can it be procured, as it is only sold to subscribers. See advertisement.

☞At a Quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church of Gettysburg Circuit held at Chamberlin's appointment Sept. 3d 1870, the following preamble and resolutions were offered and passed:

WHEREAS, The paper called "The Methodist," by what we regard as its unfair representations, and anti-Methodistic course, exerts an influence prejudicial to the interests of the church and the cause of truth: therefore,

Resolved, That we discountenance the patronizing of the paper by our membership.

Resolved, That we ask our friends of other denominations not to accept its statements of Methodist polity or usage as authority.

Resolved, That the foregoing resolutions be published in the county papers.

GETTYSBURG ZOUAVES—Will meet for Drill and Parade on the 24th inst., at 1 o'clock, P. M., in full dress, with arms and accoutrements in good order. It is also the request of the Captain that all old members who have not returned their uniforms and arms and accoutrements will do so at once, so we can have their places filled, Company drill in the armory every Monday and Thursday evenings. Those who cannot spare one hour at least every week, at the armory to learn to drill, is not fit to be a member, and the sooner he turns in his uniform the better for the Company.

By order of the Capt.
2t B. H. NORRIS, O. S.

SELLING AT COST.—Warner & Co., are now offering their large stock of Brackets, Pictures, Picture Frames, &c., at cost. They have a very fine selection of the above goods, of the latest styles and best quality. 1t

ALWAYS AHEAD.—Capt. Norris is determined not to be outdone by rivals, and has again added largely to his stock for fall and winter wear. If you want a fashionable Hat, Cap, Pants or a good pair of Boots or Shoes or any kind of underwear as cheap as before the war—Norris' Head-Quarters is the place, (Arnold's corner) young gents. If you want a fashionable Tie or Bow, don't forget that Norris is getting new styles every week, and always has the latest. CUMBERLAND.—The residence of Mr. Miller saloon-keeper on East Louther street Carlisle, was entered on Sunday night, and $72 in money and a good silver watch stolen from under the bed in which Mr. M. was sleeping.—The Farmers' and Drovers' Hotel, situated on South Hanover street, Carlisle, has been re-opened again. Mr. David Gill proprietor.—The population of Carlisle, according to the census just completed, amounts to 6,630.

FRANKLIN.—George Flack, an estimable citizen of Chambersburg, several weeks ago tread on a small fragment of bone which penetrated his shoe, inflicting a slight wound in his foot. It seemed to heal; but on Friday last, soreness of the foot set in, terminating in lock-jaw, his life being despaired of.—On Wednesday night of last week a black mare eleven years old, was stolen from the meadow of Joseph S. Crider, in St. Thomas township.—S. R. Pentz his resigned his position as Book-keeper in the Chambersburg National Bank, Wm. H. Sellers being appointed in his place.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS AND STRANGERS.—Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps.—Among the complaints for which the "Schnapps" has been declared a specific by the eminent physicians who have corresponded with the proprietor, are—dropsy, dyspepsia, debility consequent upon long continued sickness and old age, epilepsy, asthma, gravel, colic, affections of the kidneys, and all chronic diseases. For these, and many other disorders, it is now prescribed, with great success, by more than three thousand medical practitioners in various parts of the United States. 1t

(Act of June 4, 1866.)

WHEREAS, By the act of Congress of the United States, entitled "An Act to amend the several acts heretofore passed to provide for the enrolling and calling out the National forces, and for other purposes," and approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged, or relieved from the penalty of disability therein provided, are deemed, and taken, to have voluntarily relinquished, and forfeited, their rights of citizenship, and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof:

AND WHEREAS, Persons, not citizens of the United States, are not under the Constitution and Laws of Pennsylvania, qualified electors of this Commonwealth:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same: That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person, or persons, embraced in the provisions, and subject to the disability imposed by said act of Congress, approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot or ballots.

SECTION 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive, or consent to receive, any such unlawful ballot, or ballots, from any such disqualified person, he or they, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, he shall, for each offence be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, in the jail of the proper county, for not less than sixty days.

SECTION 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall, at any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot or ballots, any person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall, for each offence, be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SECTION 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade, or advise, any person or persons deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot, or ballots, to the officers of any election, hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officers to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act, in case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.*

ALSO—In and by virtue of the 14th section of the act of Feb. 27th, 1849, every person, excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of the United States, or any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the Select Common Council of any City or Commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector, or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Judge, Inspector, or other officer of any such election, shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for.

JACOB KLUNK, Sheriff.
Sheriff's office, Gettysburg, Sept. 16, 1870.

*Election officers will take notice, that the act entitled "A Further Supplement to the Election Laws of this Commonwealth," disqualifying deserters from the army of the United States from voting has recently been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, except so far as it disqualifies from voting persons duly tried and convicted of desertion, and is now null and void with said exception, and that all persons formerly disqualified thereunder with the exception named, are now lawful voters, if otherwise qualified.

REGISTRY ACT OF 17TH APRIL, 1869.

ALSO—The following sections of the new Registry Law, applicable between this and the Second Tuesday of October.

SEC. 3. After the assessments have been completed on the tenth day preceding the second Tuesday in October of each year, the assessor shall, on the Monday immediately following, make a return to the county commissioners of the names of all persons assessed by him since the return required to be made by him by the second section of this act, noting opposite each name the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid; and the county commissioners shall thereupon cause the same to be added to the return required by the second section of this act, and a full and correct copy thereof to be made, containing the names of all persons so returned as resident taxables in said ward, borough, township or precinct, and furnish the same, together with the necessary election blanks, to the officers of the election in said ward, borough, township or precinct, on or before six o'clock on the morning of the second Tuesday of October; and no man shall be permitted to vote at the election on that day whose name is not on said list, unless he shall make proof of his right to vote, as hereinafter required.

SEC. 4. On the day of the election any person whose name is not on said list, and claiming the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claims to be a voter, for the period of at least ten days next preceding said election, which witness shall take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit to the facts stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter; and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit, stating to the best of his knowledge and belief, where and when he was born; that he is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States; that he has resided in the Commonwealth one year, or if formerly a citizen therein and has moved therefrom, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has paid a State and county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before said election; and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where and by what court he was naturalized, and shall also produce his certificate of naturalization for examination; the said affidavit shall state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affiant was assessed, and when, where and to whom paid; and the tax receipt therefore shall be produced for examination, unless the affiant shall state in his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any; but if the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit, that he is a native born citizen of the United States, (or if born elsewhere, shall state that fact in his affidavit, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization;) and shall further state in his affidavit that he is, at the time of taking the affidavit, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, that he has resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days next preceding such election, he shall be entitled to vote, although he shall not have paid taxes; the said affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the election board, and at the close of the election they shall be enclosed with the list of voters, tally list and other papers required by law to be filed by the return judge with the prothonotary's office, subject to examination, as other election papers are, if the election officers shall find that the applicant or applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, he or they shall be permitted to vote, and the name or names shall be added to the list of taxables by the election officers, the word "tax" being added where the claimant claims to vote on tax, and the word "age," where he claims to vote on age; the same words being added by the clerks in each case respectively, on the lists of persons voting at such election.

SEC. 5. It shall be lawful for a qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of resident taxables, to challenge the vote of such persons whereupon the same proof of the right or suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted on by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected, according to the evidence; every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for ten years, consecutively, a voter in the district in which he offers his vote; and on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such certificate the word "voted" with the month and year; and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day, by virtue of the same certificate, except where sons are entitled to vote by virtue of the naturalization of their fathers, they and the person who shall offer such second vote, upon so offending, shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court; the fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars in each case, nor the imprisonment one year; the like punishment shall be inflicted on conviction of the officers of election who shall neglect, or refuse to make, or cause to be made, the endorsement required, as aforesaid, on said naturalization certificate.

SEC. 6. If any election officer shall refuse or neglect to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law, to the laws which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and shall admit such person to vote without requiring such proof, every person so offending shall upon conviction, be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced, for every such offence, to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not more than one year, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 7. Ten days preceeding every election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, it shall be the duty of the assessor to attend the place fixed by law for holding the election in each election district, and then and there hear all applications of persons whose names have been omitted from the list of assessed voters, and who claim the right to vote, or whose rights have originated since the same was made out, and shall add the names of persons thereto as shall show that they are entitled to the right of suffrage in such district, on the personal application of the claimant only, and forthwith assess him with the proper tax. After completing the list, a copy thereof shall be placed on the door of or on the house where the election is to be held, at least eight days before the election; and at the election the same course shall be pursued, in all respects, as is required by this act and the acts to which it is a supplement, at the general election in October. The assessor shall also make the same returns to the county commissioners of all assessments made by virtue of this section; and the county commissioners shall furnish copies thereof to the election officers in each district, in like manner in all respect as required at the general election in October.

SEC. 8. The same rules and regulations shall apply at every special election and at every separate city, borough or ward election, in all respects, as at the general election in October.

SEC. 9. The respective assessors, inspectors and judges of the elections shall each have the power to administers oaths to any person claiming the right to be assessed or the right of suffrage, or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any of said officers, shall be punished as perjury.

SEC. 10. The assessor shall each receive the same compensation for the time necessarily spent in performing the duties hereby enjoined as is provided by law for the performance of their other duties, to be paid by the county commissioners as in other cases; and it shall not be lawful for any assessor to assess a tax against any person whatever within ten days next preceeding the election to be held on the second Tuesday of October, in any year, or within ten days next before any election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States; any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor, and subject the officers so offending to a fine, on conviction, not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 11. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county, standing under oath that they verily believe that frauds will be practiced at the election about to be held, in any district, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of said county, if in session, or if not, a judge thereof in vacation, to appoint two judicious, sober and intelligent citizens of the county, to act as overseers of said election, said overseers shall be selected from different political parties, where the inspectors belong to different parties, and where both of said inspectors belong to the same political party, both of the overseers shall be taken from the opposite political party; said overseers shall have the right to be present with the officers of the election during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted, and the returns made out and signed by the election officers; to keep a list of voters, if they see proper to challenge any person offering a vote, and interrogate him and his witnesses, under oath, in regard to his right of suffrage at said election, and to examine his papers produced; and the officers of said election are required to afford to said overseers so selected and appointed every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duties; and if said election officers shall refuse to permit said overseers to be present and perform their duties as aforesaid, or if they shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, all the votes polled at such election district may be rejected by any tribunal trying any contest under said election: Provided,—That no person signing the petition shall be appointed an overseer.

SEC. 12. If any prothonotary, clerk, or the deputy of either, or any other person, shall affix the seal of office to any naturalization paper, or permit the same to be affixed, or given out, or cause or permit the same to be given out, in blank, whereby it may be fraudulently used, or furnish a naturalization certificate to any person who shall not have been duly examined and sworn in open court, in the presence of some of the judges thereof, according to the act of Congress, or shall aid in, connive at, or in any way permit the issue of any fraudulent naturalization certificate, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; or if any one shall fraudulently use any such certificate of naturalization, knowing that it was fraudulently issued, or shall vote, or attempt to vote, on any certificate of naturalization not issued to him, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; and either or any of the persons, their aiders or abettors, guilty of either of the misdemeanors aforesaid, shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisonment in the proper penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years.

SEC. 13. Any person who on oath or affirmation, in or before any court in this State, or officers authorized to administer oaths, shall, to procure a certificate of naturalization, for himself or any other person, willfully dispose, declare or affirm any matter of fact, knowing the same to be false, or shall in like manner deny any matter or fact, knowing the same to be true, shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and any certificate of naturalization issued in pursuance of any such deposition, declaration, or affirmation shall be null and void; and it shall be the duty of the court issuing the same, upon proof being made before it that it was fraudulently obtained, to take immediate measures for recalling the same for cancellation; and any person who shall vote, or attempt to vote, on any paper so obtained, or who shall in any way aid in, connive at, or have any agency whatever in the issue, circulation or use of any fraudulent naturalization certificate, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and, upon conviction therefore, shall undergo an imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than two years, and pay a fine, not more than one thousand dollars, for every such offence, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 14. Any assessor, election officer or person appointed as an overseer, who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined by this act, without reasonable or legal cause, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars; and if any assessor shall assess any person as a voter who is not qualified, or refuse to assess any person who is qualified, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and on conviction be punished by fine or imprisonment, and also be subject to an action for damages by the party aggrieved; and if any person shall fraudulently alter, add to, deface or destroy any list of voters, made out as directed by this act, or tear down or remove the same from the place where it has been fixed, with fraudulent or mischievous intent or for any improper purpose, the person so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 15. All elections for the city, ward, borough, township and election officers shall hereafter be held on the second Tuesday of October, subject to all the provisions of the law regulating the election of such officers not inconsistent with this act; the persons elected to such offices at that time shall take their places at the expiration of the terms of the persons holding the same at the time of such election; but no election for the office of assessor or assistant assessor shall be held under this act until the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

SEC. 16. At all elections hereafter held, under the laws of this commonwealth, the polls shall be opened between the hours of six and seven o'clock, A. M., and be closed at seven o'clock, P. M.

SEC. 17. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the commonwealth to prepare forms for all the blanks made necessary by this act, and furnish copies of the same to county commissioners of the several counties of the commonwealth; and the county commissioners of each county shall, as soon as may be necessary after the receipt of the same, at the proper expense of the county, procure and furnish to all the election officials of the election districts of their respective counties copies of such quantities as may be rendered necessary for the discharge of their duties under this act.

SEC. 18. None of the foregoing provisions of this act shall apply to the city of Philadelphia, excepting sections twelve and thirteen.

SEC. 19. The citizens of this State temporarily in the service of the State, or of the United States governments, on clerical or other duty, and who do not vote where thus employed, shall not be thereby deprived of the right to vote in their several election districts, if otherwise duly qualified.

SEC. 20. The act entitled "A further supplement to the act relating to the elections of this commonwealth," approved April fourth, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred sixty-eight, and all other laws altered or supplied by this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

XV AMENDMENT CONSTITUTION U. S.

The following instructions from his Excellency Gov. Geary, explains the duties of Assessors, Registers and Election officers in regard to all freedmen of this Commonwealth:

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
HARRISBURGH, PA., Aug. 27, 1870.

To the Sheriff of the County of Adams.

WHEREAS, The Fifteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States is as follows:

SECTION 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude.

SECTION 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

'AND WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States, on the 31st day of March, 1870, passed an act, entitled "An act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, and for other purposes," the first and second sections of which are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all citizens of the United States, who are, or shall be otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election by the people, in any State, Territory, district, county, city, parish, township, school district, municipality or other territorial sub-division, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections, without distinction of race, color or previous condition of servitude; any Constitution, law, custom, usages or regulations of any State or Territory, or by or under its authority, to the contrary notwithstanding."

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That if by or under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any States, or the laws of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting and by such Constitution or law, persons or officers are or shall be charged with the performance of duties in furnishing citizens an opportunity to perform such pre-requisite, or to become qualified to vote, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, the same equal opportunity to perform such pre-requisite, and to become qualified to vote without distinction of race, color or previous condition of servitude; and if any such person or officer shall refuse or knowingly omit to give full effect to this section, he shall for every offence forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action on the case, with full costs and such allowance for counsel fees as the court shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than one month and not more than one year, at the discretion of the court.

And whereas, it is declared by the 2d section of the VI article of the Constitution of the United States, that "This Constitution of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land, * * * * anything in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

And whereas, the Legislature of the Commonwealth, on the 6th day of April, A. D., 1870, passed an act, entitled "A further supplement to the act relating to the elections in this Commonwealth," the tenth section of which provides as follows:

SECTION 10. That so much of every act of Assembly as provides that only white freeman shall be entitled to vote or be registered as votes, or as claiming to vote at any general special election of this Commonwealth, be and the same is hereby repealed; and that hereafter, all freemen, without distinction of color, shall be enrolled and registered according to the provisions of the first section of the act approved seventeenth of April, '69, entitled "An act further supplement to the act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," and when otherwise qualified under existing laws, be entitled to vote at all general and special elections in this Commonwealth.

And whereas, It is my constitutional and official duty to "take care that the laws be faithfully executed;" and it has come to my knowledge that sundry assessors and registers of voters have refused, and are refusing to assess and register divers colored male citizens of lawful age, and otherwise qualified as electors.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises, the county commissioners of said county are hereby notified and directed to instruct the several assessors and registers of voters therein, to obey and conform to the requirements of said constitutional amendment and laws; and the sheriff of said county is hereby authorized and required to publish in his proclamation for the next ensuing elections the herein recited constitutional amendment, act of Congress, and act of the Legislature, to the end that the same be known, executed and obeyed by all assessors, registers of voters, election officers and others, that the rights and privileges guaranteed thereby may be secured to all the citizens of this Commonwealth entitled the same.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, the day and [SEAL.] year first above written.
JOHN W. GEARY.

MINNESOTA:

Its Resources and Progress—Its Beauty, Healthfulness and Fertility, and Its Attractions and Advantages as a Home for Immigrants—A New Book Free of Cost, compiled from official sources and published by direction of Governor Horace Austin.

In a convenient and readable form it exhibits the inducements offered by Minnesota to persons seeking new homes, and includes official statistics illustrative of the marvellous growth and development of that young, vigorous and healthy state.

Other publications to attract immigrants usually deal in indiscriminate puffery and grossly exagerated statements. This gives a candid exhibit of facts, derived chiefly from the State Bureau of Statistics, and otherwise supported by scientific and disinterested testimony of the most incontestible character.

After a short geographical and historical sketch, showing the central position of the state and the events of its young history, follows a description of its beauty and fertility from the testimony of high military and literary authorities; an exhibit of mineral resources; a description of its beautiful lakes, rivers, timber, game and fish; a dissertation on the climate, illustrating its marvellous healthfulness and adaptability to agriculture; shows how the cultivated area grew from 1,900 acres in 1850 to 1,690,000 acres in 1869, with a surplus of 14,000,000 bushels of wheat for export; gives tables of comparison, proving officially that Minnesota excels Iowa and Ohio in her average product of wheat, and all other staples except corn; shows a more ample and effectual water power than all New England, and that, while not a tithe of this power is yet used, the extent and value of manifactures have increased 245 per cent. in nine years.

The book also shows the value and importance of the lumbering interest, commercial resources and progress, navigation, railroads constructed and projected, including the Northern Pacific—already energetically pushed forward—the amazing development of common schools from thirteen districts, five school houses and 250 scholars in 1851, to 2,521 districts, 1,929 school houses and 102,066 scholars in 1869—progress in population in which the State is shown to have outstripped all her sisters. Due attention is given to political and social institutions, government, taxation, value of property, distribution of wealth, improvement of farms, exemption laws, law of descent, legal practice, statistics of charitable institutions, poor, post offices, newspapers, religion, Sunday Schools, Masons, Odd Fellows, &c.

It concludes with a chapter on "Public Lands, how and where to get them," shows the amount of unoccupied lands, how to obtain "free farms," gives the location of the government land offices, describes the different classes of public lands and the several modes and cost of obtaining them under the homestead laws, by pre-emption, &c., with suggestions as to the manner and cost of starting farms, when to commence, what money can do, what pluck and muscle may do—wages, employment, and who should come to the State—affording, in short, all such information as emigrants most need.

Part of the edition is accompanied with an excellent map, showing the character of the different localities, &c.

This book will be sent to any address in America or Europe, free of postage or other expense, on application to E. PAGE DAVIS, Commissioner of Immigration for the State of Minnesota, No. 156 Broadway, New York, where all information in regard to the State will be cheerfully given. Sept. 9, 1870-4w

THE GREAT AMERICAN HEALTH RESTORER, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your ROSADALIS as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. M'Fadden, Murfreesboro', Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

HOW TO CURE

CONSUMPTION!!

THE PHILOSOPHY OF DR. SCHENCK'S GREAT MEDICINES.—Will people never learn to know that a diseased liver and stomach necessarily disease the entire system? The plainest Principles of common sense teach this, and yet there are hundreds who ridicule the idea, and continue in the course which almost inevitably brings them permaturely to the grave. Living as the majority of the people do, at complete variance with the laws of nature, it must be apparent to all that, sooner or later, nature will revenge herself. Hence we find that persons who indulge to excess in the use of very rich or indigestible food or intoxicating drinks, invariably pay a heavy penalty in the end. The stomach becomes disordered and refuses to act; the liver fails to perform its functions, dyspepsia and its attendant evils follow, and still the suffering individuals persist in clinging to the thoroughly exploded ideas of the past. Dr. Schenck's medicines are recommended to all such. They bring sure and certain relief wherever they are used as directed, and all that is necessary to establish their reputation with every ailing man or woman in the land is a fair and impartial trial of them. Let those who are skeptical on this point, and who have permitted interested persons to prejudice them against these now celebrated remedies for Consumption, discard their prejudices, and be governed by the principles of reason and common sense. If the system is disordered depend upon it, in nine cases out of ten the seat of disorder will be fonnd in the stomach and liver. To cleanse and invigorate the stomach and to stimulate the liver to healthy action, use

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.—The daily increasing demand for these pills is the best evidence of their value. Thousands upon thousands of boxes are sold daily. Why? Simply because they act promptly and efficiently. Invalids, who may not find it convenient to call on Dr. Schenck in person are informed that full and complete directions for use accompany each package of the MANDRAKE PILLS, PULMONIC SYRUP AND SEAWEED TONIC.—These medicines wil cure consumption unless the lungs are so far gone that the patient is entirely beyond the reach of medical relief.

It may be asked by those who are not familiar with the virtues of these great remedies, "How do Dr. Schenck's medicines effect their wonderful cures of consumption?"

The answer is a simple one. They begin their work of restoration by bringing the stomach, liver and bowels into an acive healthy condition. It is food that cures this formidable disease.—SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS act on the liver and stomach, promoting healthy secretion, and removing the bile and slime which have resulted from the inactive or torpid condition of these organs, and of the system generally. This sluggish state of the body, and the consequent accumulation of the unhealthy substances named prevent the proper digestion of food, and, as a natural consequence creates disease, which results in prostration and finally in death.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP and SEAWEED TONIC, when taken regularly, mingle with the food, aid the digestive organs, make good rich blood, and as a natural consequence, give flesh and strength to the patient. Let the faculty say what it may, this is the only true cure for consumption. Experience has proved it beyond the shadow of a doubt, and thousands are to-day alive and well who a few years since were regarded as hopeless cases, but who were induced to try Dr. Schenck's remedies, and were restored to permanent health by their use.

One of the first steps the physician should take with a consumptive patient is to invigorate the system. Now how is this to be done? Certainly not by giving medicines that exhaust and enervate—medicines that impair instead of improve the functions of the digestive organs. Dr. Schenck's medicines cleanse the stomach and bowels of all substances which are calculated to irritate or weaken them. They create an appetite—promote healthful digestion—make good blood, and, as a consequence, they invigorate and strengthen the entire system, and more especially those parts which are diseased. If this cannot be done, then the case must be regarded as a hopeless one.

If the physician finds it impossible to make a PATIENT FEEL HUNGRY, if the diseased person cannot partake of good nourishing food and properly digest it, it is impossible that he can gain flesh and strength; and it is equally impossible to bring a patient to this condition so long as the liver is burdened with diseased bile, and the stomach laden with unhealthy slime.

Almost the first request made to the physician by a consumptive patient is that he will prescribe medicines that will remove or allay the cough, night sweats and chills, which are the sure attendants on consumption. But this should not be done, as the cough is only an effort of nature to relieve itself, and the night sweats and chills are caused by the diseased lungs. The remedies ordinarily prescribed do more harm than good.—They impair the functions of the stomach, impede healthy digestion, and aggravate rather than cure the disease.

There is, afrer all, nothing like facts with which to substantiate a position, and it is upon facts that Dr. Schenck relies. Nearly all who have taken his medicines in accordance with his directions have not only been cured of consumption, but, from the fact that these medicines act with wonderful power upon the digestive organs, patients thus cured speedily gain flesh. Cleansing the system of all impurities, they lay the foundation for a solid, substantial structure. Restoring these organs to health, they create an appetite. The food is properly assimilated; the quantity of blood is not only increased, but is made rich and strong and in the face of such a condition of the system all disease must be banished.

Full directions accompany each of the medicines, so that it is not absolutely necessary that patients should see Dr. Schenck personally, unless they desire to have their lungs examined. For this purpose he is at his principle office, No. 15 North Sixth St., corner of Commerce, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 6 A. M., until 1 P. M.

Advice is given without charge, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $5.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each, $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. [June 10, 1870–1y

MANHOOD

IN THE YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scene of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain: the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

> "With woeful measures wan Despair
> Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of Chemistry for the removal of the consequences. HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is a testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere.—Price $1.25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.
